Pastor’s Corner: Risking All For The Savior

“So then, welcome him in the Lord with great joy and honor people like him, because he almost died for the work of Christ. He risked his life to make up for the help you yourselves could not give him.” -Philippians 2:29-30

The Bible tells us about a Christian, named Epaphroditus, who took great risks to help others. Today believers around the world risk their lives for the cause of Jesus Christ. They remind me of Desmond Doss whose story is told in the movie Hacksaw Ridge. Doss, a Seventh Day Adventist from the hills of Virginia, enlisted in the Army with the understanding he could serve as a medic and therefore not violate his firm belief in “thou shalt not kill.” When he arrived at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, he was in for a rude surprise. His sergeant, his captain, and the judge at the subsequent military hearing didn’t care much for Doss’s convictions. Nor did members of his platoon, who accused him of cowardice and let him know how they felt with their fists. Doss stood firm despite facing years of imprisonment. He told a military tribunal, “With the world so set on tearing itself apart, it don’t seem like such a bad thing to me to put a little bit of it back together.” The Army gave in and Doss went with his platoon to Okinawa and scaled a cliff known as “the escarpment” (Hacksaw Ridge). Hundreds of GI’s perished in the fight that day. At night, as the wounded lay in agony, Doss went from man to man, dragged them to the edge of the cliff and lowered them on a rope one by one. In all he saved 75 wounded GIs from certain death. For his actions, President Truman awarded Doss the Congressional Medal of Honor. He is the only conscientious objector in U.S. history to win the nation’s highest award. Doss quietly and courageously sought to be a good citizen but knew where his true citizenship lay (Philippians 3:20). Abuse, scorn, the threat of imprisonment, even Japanese bullets could not induce him to abandon his convictions. Doss backed his convictions with his actions. His humility, bravery and willingness to sacrifice his life for his brother soldiers, including those who had mocked him, won over even his harshest critics. In a time when so many seem to have no moral compass and have forsaken Jesus Christ, may we be like Desmond Doss.

In Christ,
Pastor Doug

CURRENT SERIES: TIMELESS TRUTHS FROM THE BOOK OF JAMES

Some Bible teachers consider The Book of James to be the best of the New Testament books for new disciples; its practical approach gives the reader a handle on putting their faith into practice. Also, as one of the oldest New Testament books, James gives us an idea of the focus of teaching in the early days of the church. We call this series Timeless Truths From the Book of James because James takes us back to the earliest days of the faith, showing us what it means to be a follower of Jesus.

SHORT AND SWEET WORDS

But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 1 John 1:7

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

I love to walk places. This might come as a bit of a shock to some of you. Especially those that know I grew up in California and that is a state that seems to be built as one collective freeway it seems! Walking is not really an option in most instances there!

I have been blessed though to live in two other places. Holland, Michigan for college and seminary and now in Richboro. I am grateful that each of these places, with a bit of creativity in route, have been walkable for many day in and day out tasks.

I could go on and on for a while sharing many of the things I love about being able to walk places. I have no doubt you might have a host of reasons to share with me about how driving is far superior to walking! Putting those things aside though for just a moment I want to reflect on walking through the lens of being in relationship to Jesus. Overwhelmingly in scripture our relationship to God is shared in comparison to walking with Him. Above is one such instruction from 1 John telling us as such. Walking in the light of Christ brings us into His presence and fellowship with His people.

Yet walking is a unique way to share this relationship. Couldn't living or sharing or drawing close better illustrate this reality and need for us? While walking in the light of Christ certainly leads us to live in His light, I want to pay closer attention to this call to walk in the light of Christ. One reason is in that when we walk with Him we consider two things right out of the gate. First it is an action. It is taking a step with Jesus. To say we live or draw close to Him is certainly a part of this, walking in the Light of Christ always means taking steps toward Him. And second, walking is a slow pace. Notice again the invitation throughout scripture and here in 1 John is to walk in the Light of Christ, not run or sprint or jog, no it is walk. Walking allows for conversation and space to see what is going on. To change course more quickly and to stop and rest if need be.

At its best, the times I am able to walk places afford me this opportunity to step with Jesus and consider all the places His light is at work in my life and in lives of those I am able to walk alongside of in fellowship.

I pray that as you walk with Jesus in the month ahead you have space and time to see His light shining in and through you each step of the way!

In Christ,
Pastor Ryan

These are held on the first Saturday of the month (7:30AM-9AM, with coffee on at 7AM) from October through the first Saturday in June but skipping January.

Join us May 4, in Fellowship Hall at 7:30AM for:

“How Big Is Your Faith?”

Having a big faith during big challenges can be hard to secure.

As we think of the characters of the Bible, particularly the disciples, we often see them in a perfected context, always doing the right thing, with a big faith. But actually, the disciples faced big challenges to their faith during Jesus' ministry. And they didn't always get it right, at least initially. The practicalities of circumstances can be a big deterrent to a big faith.

Join us for insights with two disciples, Peter and Andrew, and facilitator Bob Proske, to see how they overcame the barriers to having a big faith, despite the circumstances.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH THE PSALMS

(limited effort, unlimited value)

We asked for feedback from some of the almost 200 people who participated in at least one of 14 small groups during this past Lenten Season. Here's what they had to say:

"I really enjoyed participating in the 2024 Lenten Series, Encountering God Through the Psalms. This particular study reached me on a much more deeply personal level which I feel was as a result of my ability to experience it through THREE different small groups: Manna (Thursday afternoons); Adult Sunday School class (Sunday mornings at 10:30); Girlfriends in God (Sunday evenings). I appreciated the opportunity to hear three different leaders and their individual perspectives. Each group's discussion was quite unique and enlightening even though the subject matter was the same for that week. I am grateful for the small group experiences and the positive impact each one had on my journey." Charlene Borah

"This year's Lenten devotional was well received. We had between 9 and 13 attendees each week. Three were on Zoom and the others in person. There was more participation and discussion this year, mostly because we were the same group as last year and felt comfortable sharing ideas and prayers. They all wanted to know if we would be doing it again next Lent. That's positive feedback!" Bob Matlack

"The Holy Week devotional was specifically beneficial to gaining a deeper understanding and appreciation for Psalms. The corporate growth through personal commitment to reading scripture, studying the Word and praying together within an intimate gathering of Christian fellows for the Lenten devotional simply cannot be overstated. The presence of the Holy Spirit filled the room, opened our minds, and stirred our hearts to joyfully receive an abundance of God's peace, hope, and grace. And our group yearns for the next opportunity to join together in the name of Jesus Christ." Pat Donohue

The goals of our Lenten Devotional included bringing us closer to together as God's church at Addisville, and to bring us closer in our personal relationship with Jesus Christ. If you would like to participate in the planning of the Devotional for 2025, or perhaps create your own small group, please contact me or anyone on the Christian Education Committee.

GOD'S TRUTH NEVER CHANGES!

Do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may discern what is the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God.

Romans 12:2

At Breaker Rock Beach this June, kids will learn to recognize the difference between what the world says is true and what God says is true. They'll encounter five everyday sayings that sound right, but dangerously miss the truth found in God's Word. Each day the kids will be challenged to know that God's truth never changes—even when it's radically different from what some people say.

If you are still interested in helping out, we can find a place for you to join us. You will be helping to make a lasting impact on the children of our church family and the children living in our church neighborhood.

Don't miss out on the fun! Contact Natalie Kelly at natalie.kelly@addisville.org to get involved to help make this year's Bible School Program the best yet!

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD UPDATE MAY 2024

We are off to a wonderful start in collecting items due to some very generous donations via Amazon purchases. The goal this year is 480 boxes and that is very achievable.

This month we are collecting balls and Matchbox/Hot Wheels cars for the boys. A bunch is needed! Balls could be bouncy balls or tennis balls, even soccer balls (the smaller sizes). Walmart has 18 tennis balls for $10. All donations of socks, stuffies, washcloths, T-shirts, and toothbrushes will be accepted year-round.

The Amazon gift registry is available here:

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Guess what?! Financially, Addisville, had another good month in March. Receipts in March 2024 in the Current Fund were $52,220 compared with $30,373 in 2024. This is an increase of $21,847 year over year.

Although this is exciting, I must inform you that there were five Sundays in March this year and one of them was Easter. Both these events will inflate the total for the month. I estimate that about $10,000 of the increase can be attributed to Easter and the extra Sunday.

So, if I am right, March this year compared to last year increased by about $11,000. Pat yourself on your back, but give thanks to the Lord! Your faithfulness to Jesus and His church at Addisville is producing tremendous results.

For the year to March 31, 2024, we are indicating a positive net balance in the Current Fund of $6,453 compared to a deficit of $33,658 last year for the same period (don't forget the Easter and five Sundays in March impact).

Also, for the first time this year, we are projecting a modest surplus of $1,646 by the end of this year.

I hope I did not load you up with too many numbers, but the news is exciting. We could expect nothing less from this wonderful family of Addisville, which is dedicated to its mission to share the Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ. We owe all our gratitude to Him!

Frank Claus, Chair
